BROWN COUNTY FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

The Brown County Foundation will grant a $500.00, nonrenewable, scholarship to a member of each Brown County High School graduating class.

In order to be considered for the scholarship, the student must first meet the following criteria:

1. Be a graduating Senior from a high school in Brown County, Ohio.
2. Be accepted by a college, university, or post-secondary accredited educational institution.
3. Have a high school cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher.
4. Send a cover letter, not exceeding one page, giving the Foundation board a brief autobiographical sketch of yourself, along with the Application and letters of recommendation to the Foundation by April 20th of the year of graduation.

Applications must be postmarked by the April 20th deadline. The Foundation will pay the scholarship directly to the institution in the name of the recipient. The recipient is responsible for timely providing the Foundation with the proper mailing address and account number to which the payment should be made.
